The HEADQUARTERS

Volume 57 • November 2019

Library

 All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will close at 6:00PM on Wednesday, November 27 and will be closed Thursday, November 28 and Friday, November 29 for Thanksgiving. **

NANOWRIMO

Help kick off National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) on November 1 at 6:00PM at the library with the author of “Ember,” Brock Adams. Brock will give helpful hints on how to go from ideas and a blank page to writing the first couple chapters of a book, as well as answer any questions about writing that aspiring authors may have.

We will also host NaNoWriMo: Overcoming Writing Slumps with Jill Criswell on November 18 at 6:00PM. Jill is the author of “Beasts of the Frozen Sun.” She will share helpful hints on how to overcome writing slumps and how to finish writing projects strong. Contact 864-596-3502 for more information.

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

The Headquarters Library will host several events in connection with Native American Heritage Month that takes place in November. The first is our Genealogy Series: Beginning Resources for Native American Research that will take place on November 4 at 7:00PM, and on November 13 at 10:00AM. These programs will be presented by Charity Rouse, Director of Local History, and will include an overview of records available for researching your Native American roots and/or family stories. Contact 864-596-3508 for more information.

We will also host Spartanburg County Historical Association’s Traveling Trunk on Native American History on November 5 at 6:00PM. Make plans to join us to see the Spartanburg County Historical Association’s Traveling Trunk on Native American history and hear from a local expert about the history of American Indian tribes in our region. Contact 864-596-3502 for more information.

GEOCACHING INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

The Upstate South Carolina Geocachers Association will share geocaching with the public and geocaching trails in the Upstate (including the Library’s Hitting the Books Geocoin trail), followed by the 2019 Geocaching International Film Festival on November 10 at 3:00PM at the Headquarters Library. We will join with thousands of geocachers taking part in a global geocaching movie event! It will be a time of sharing stories, trackables and knowledge with other geocachers and muggles, alike! Cachers, check out GC8CJo7! Contact 864-596-3505 for more information.
