THE LANDRUM LIBRARY

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE LANDRUM LIBRARY IN APRIL 2024

Kids

Where do Teddy Bears come from? We'll find out in Homeschool on April 16, and make our very own bear friends! Registration is required for this program.

In MiniMakers on April 18, we're creating TravelWees, tiny fluffy friends who can come on vacation with you! Registration is required for this program.

As always, Lego Club is on the 1st Tuesday of the month, April 2.

Teens

Love those bracelets that all the Taylor Swift fans are wearing? Come make your own in our Teens Make program on April 8. Keep them for yourself or make them for your friends!

Has it been a long day at school? We're throwing a Just Dance party on April 22. Bring your favorite people and let's get moving!

Adults

Want to keep your body AND brain healthy? Kathy Marzec from the Alzheimer's Association returns on April 10 to tell us about research in diet, nutrition, exercise, cognitive activity, and social engagement that you can use to improve your well-being. Bring your lunch and enjoy!

Homeschooling parents and teachers, we're welcoming Alice Jackson back in the 4th and final part in her Cognition series, "Learning to Read." Find out how you can maximize your efforts in educating your children! Registration is not required for this program, but it is encouraged.

On April 16, Conserving Carolina and the Landrum Library present Upstate favorite Dennis Chastain to talk about Landrum's local Indian paths and the Revolutionary War Battle of Earle's Ford.

More in the mood for music? Chris Wayne Gilmer plays 1950's Americana favorites on April 18. Kick back to the sounds of Buddy Holly, Fats Domino, and even some originals!

Foothills Book Circle is back on April 25, reading "One Foot in Eden" by the Upstate's own Ron Rash. We'll have books available to check out at the Circulation Desk.
