MIDDLE TYGER LIBRARY

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE MIDDLE TYGER LIBRARY IN APRIL 2025

Libraries Closed

All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will be closed on Sunday, April 20 for Easter.

Gardening Books at Middle Tyger

National Library Week is April 6-12, 2025. This week promotes library services. The Middle Tyger Library would like to spotlight some library services that are available to you and your family.

- Free MiFi Hotspot: You can check out a free SCPL (Spartanburg County Public Libraries) MiFi Hotspot with your library card. The library is glad to bring Internet access wherever you want.
- Seed Library: The Seed Library is a library program that shares seeds with the community. Middle Tyger Library maintains our collection of seeds through donations. You do not have to be a professional gardener to participate.
- Free Learning Tools: Pebble Go & Pebble Next – Ideal for students K-5. The tool provides engaging information about animals, science, and social studies.

Call the library or stop by the service desk for more information about the services listed above.

Special Events for the Month of April

Book Review by Teresa Herrera

When in Rome by Sarah Adams is a romantic comedy filled with humor and heartwarming moments. The story follows Amelia Rose, a pop star in desperate need of an escape from her overwhelming public life. Inspired by Audrey Hepburn's Roman Holiday, she decides to go to the small-town of Rome, Kentucky. With a broken-down vehicle, she ends up stranded on the doorstep of Noah Walker, a grumpy yet charming local baker with no interest in her celebrity drama. Sparks fly as they spend time together and eventually their playful banter turns into undeniable chemistry. Noah and Amelia have a multitude of reasons to not risk their hearts, but what will they do if one of them lets their guard down? In this slow-burn romance, Adams perfectly balances lighthearted comedy with emotional, raw moments between the characters. Overall, it is a sweet, fun read that keeps you smiling page after page.
